Divine Mercy Sunday
April 7, 2024

Beloved people of God,

Peace be with you. May the joy of the risen Lord fill your hearts and homes as we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday.

I am delighted to express my gratitude to all our parishioners for a very active participation all through the Holy Week to Easter Sunday. It was so fulfilling to see us come together with overflowing joy to worship the Lord our God.

My special gratitude goes to the various ministries in our parish:

Thank you to Lauren Goracke, our office manager and bookkeeper; Cynthia Muskat and our very special team of choristers; Caroline Canney and the OCIA/RCIA group; Christine Meyer and the Liturgy Committee; Dave and Trish Schmidt and the Art and Environment group; Colin Meyer and the altar servers; our Deacon George Canney and the Deacon candidates; Dana Wekerle and our instrumentalists; Becky Dail and her team for helping organize our retreat; Ed Broemmeling and the bus drivers; Pete Armstrong and the sacristans; Brian Johnson and the lectors; Buck Lytle and the eucharistic ministers; Christine Meyer and the hospitality ministry; Jennifer Morrison and all our religious education teachers; Kathylu Szabo and the organizers of the Seder Meal. Thank you also to the wonderful team that counts our collections; the wonderful team that takes care of our sacred linens, vessels, and vestments; all who in their generosity donated flowers and the little angels that brought them forward; the team that keeps our church clean Bobbi, Jerry, and Amalia; our awesome teams at the Food Bank and St Vincent de Paul. And finally, thank you to my dear Brother, Fr. Tony.

I will not forget also the great people of Genesee. The teaming number of altar servers, Marnie, Annie, Ray and Connie, Mary and Margaret, Shannon and Molly, Jill, Tim, and ... thank you for your generosity of heart and for your dedication to the things of God.

I thank everyone for making this year's Easter celebration a success. By the intercession of our blessed Mother Mary, may the blessings of God the Father Almighty come down and remain with you always.

Fr. Ben.
