

Elijah on Mount Carmel, a mad lib

Because Ahab kept worshipping the _____ Baal, God said that no _____

(a noun)

(a liquid)

would fall from the _____ for _____ years, and it didn't.

(something above you)

After those years, Elijah went to Ahab and told him to tell the people to _____

(a verb – a way of moving) to Mount _____. Elijah told Ahab to also bring the 450 _____

(a kind of candy)

(adjective)

prophets of Baal with him also.

(an adjective)

(another adjective)

When everyone had gathered on the mount, Elijah told them that they needed to choose between

God and Baal. So he suggested a contest.

They would each choose a _____, build an altar, put _____ on (an animal)

(noun, plural)

it, and then pray to God or the Lord to send fire, and whichever sent the fire would be the true God.

The prophets of Baal _____ and _____ and _____ until _____, but no _____ came.

(a time of day)

(noun)

Elijah began to make fun of them, asking if Baal was _____ or _____.

(adjective)

(another adjective)

The prophets prayed harder and harder, and even cut themselves until their _____

(a liquid)

came out, but there was still no response all day long. Baal did not _____.

(a verb, something you can do)

Finally, Elijah called the people to him. He rebuilt the altar of the Lord with _____, dug a _____ around it, and poured _____ on it _____ times.

(noun, plural)

Then Elijah prayed to God and the fire of the Lord came down and burned up everything.

When the people saw it, they cried out, "The Lord – he is God! The Lord – he is God!" and they started worshipping the true God again.
