

JONAH, a mad lib

A long time ago, there was a _____ named Jonah. His job was to bring God's (occupation)

_____ to the people.

(noun, plural)

One day God told Jonah to go to the _____ of Ninevah and tell them to (something alive, plural)

stop being bad and start being _____.

(adjective)

Jonah didn't want to go, so he headed in the opposite direction, got on a _____,
(form of transportation)

and tried to _____ away from God.

(action verb – something you can do)

After awhile, a huge _____ came up. The _____ was blowing and the (noun) (noun)

_____ were crashing and the _____ were very afraid.

(noun, plural)

(an occupation, plural)

Jonah knew that it was his fault and he asked them to throw him into the _____.

(something large)

They didn't want to, but things kept getting worse, so finally they agreed.

Immediately, everything stopped and was calm. The people were _____ and (an emotion)

gave _____ to God for saving them.

(a noun, plural)

Meanwhile, Jonah was sinking down into the _____, about to _____.

(something that starts with "W")

(action verb)

But God sent a big _____ which swallowed Jonah.

(something alive)

Jonah spent _____ days in its _____, praying and (a number) (a body part) thanking God for saving him.

After awhile, the creature _____ Jonah onto dry _____ and (verb, something you can do to someone) (noun)

this time Jonah went straight to Ninevah to do what God had told him to do.

The Ninevites listened to Jonah and started being _____. God had given them a _____ chance, just as he had with Jonah.
(adjective)

(number+st/nd/th, whatever fits)