

Samuel, a mad lib

A long time ago, there was a _____ named Hannah who went with her family to the town of _____ (something alive)

_____ to worship at the tabernacle, God's _____
(the name of a city) (an adjective) (a noun that you use outside)

Hannah was very, very _____ because she didn't have any _____
(an emotion) (a noun, plural)

While they were at the tabernacle, Hannah _____ to God for one.
(verb+ed)

Her _____ moved, but no sound came out and her _____ filled with tears.
(a body part) (another body part)

She told God that if he gave her what she asked for that she would give him back to God.

The _____, Eli, thought she was acting _____, so he asked what was wrong.
(an occupation) (an adverb ending in "ly")

She told him her story and Eli told her not to _____, that God would answer her.
a verb)

In time, Hannah had a baby boy and named him Samuel. He lived with his parents for _____ (a number)

years and then went to live and _____ at the tabernacle with Eli.
(a verb)

After that, Hannah had _____ more sons and _____ more daughters.
(a number) (another number)

Every year she visited Samuel at the tabernacle and took him a new _____.
(a noun)

One night when Samuel was a bit older, he was _____ on his _____ (verb + ing) (noun)

when he heard a voice call his name. He got up and _____ to Eli, but Eli said, "I didn't (verb, past tense)

call you. Go back to your _____."
(a noun)

Once again Samuel heard the voice and once again Eli said he hadn't called.

After this happened _____ times, Eli realized that God was _____ Samuel,
(a number) (verb+ing, something you can do to/for someone else)

so he told Samuel to answer, "I'm _____ Lord. What do you want me to do?"
(verb+ing)

After that God spoke to Samuel and Samuel became a _____ of God.
(an occupation)
